Property Description

De Cuip is a small corner of paradise located above the village of Saint Jean d' Aulps in the charming hamlet of Bellecombe.

Set amongst typical alpine scenery with a splendid view of the Roc d'Enfer, this semi-detached chalet offers all the advantages and comfort for a unique mountain experience.

This cosy and comfortable chalet combines the authenticity of a Savoyard building with modern and contemporary furnishings.

Over two floors, the chalet is composed as follows:

Ground floor: entrance hall, a kitchen with a convivial dining area, two beautiful bedrooms, a shower room and a bathroom, separate WC, a beautiful terrace facing south-west. This floor is full of character as the original beams have been left exposed.

First floor: a large living room with wood stove and mountain view, a living room, two bedrooms, and a terrace.

Externally there is a charming garden of about 1100 m<sup>2</sup> facing south-west with a breathtaking view of the Roc d' enfer.

In the basement there is a small cellar to store tools and garden furniture.

There is an attic currently accessible through a hatch and ladder offers the possibility of expansion.

In addition, De Cuip offers a great opportunity to build a balcony on the first floor, there are building permits already agreed by the commune.
